

Representative Kahn Only Loss; Governors Win

NEW YORK (Spl.)—Riding on the crest of the Democratic landslide, Governor Herbert H. Lehman, of New York, and Governor Henry Horner, of Illinois, were re-elected in Tuesday's voting by rousing majorities as all but one of the Jewish members of the House of Representatives were returned to Congress. Florence Prag Kahn, Republican, San Francisco, Cal., lost her seat to her Democratic opponent.

Entering the race for another term only after the repeated petitioning of his friends, Governor Lehman defeated William B. Beakley by an overwhelming majority. In Illinois, Governor Horner's re-election made him the first Democratic governor to win a second term.

Adolph J. Sabath, the man who has served longest in the House of Representatives, won an easy victory in Chicago. In New York, Samuel Dickstein, leader in congressional investigation of un-American activities was returned to the House along with Emanuel Celler. Connecticut sent its two Jewish Congressmen back to the House. They are Herman Koppleman, of Hartford, and William M. Citron, of Middletown, representative-at-large.

It cost the city $500 to register Nathan Wolf's vote for Governor Landon. The only voter in the Fortieth Election District of the city's Tenth Assembly District, Rabbi Wolf's vote necessitated a full staff of poll officials.

Maccabees Lose To Boston Celts

BOSTON (Spl.)—Unbeaten in their four American appearances, the Maccabee soccer team of Palestine was trounced in a surprising upset by the Boston Celts, 3-2. One of the largest crowds to witness a soccer game in Boston saw the Palestinians outplayed by the alert Celts. At no time were the Maccabees in the lead.

Previously, the Maccabees had registered three wins and a tie in games in New York, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis.

Archbishop Is Praised By Rabbi

LOS ANGELES (NCJC)—Addressing a group of 500 representative leaders of all religious faiths at a gathering held this week in honor of the Most Reverend John J. Cantwell, archbishop-elect of Los Angeles, Rabbi Edgar F. Maginn paid tribute to the archbishop as "one who was human, understanding and broad-minded," whose services had been most helpful in promoting the cooperative religious enterprises of Jews, Catholics and Protestants.

The gathering was a demonstration of the growing understanding and cooperation of the three religious groups in Southern California.

Catholic Laymen Assail Coughlin

JAMAICA, N. Y. (NCJC)—The Catholic Laymen's League Opposed to Political Ecclesiasticism made public today a statement assailing "the cowardly Jew baiting" of the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin. It opposed, in addition, Father Coughlin's "appeals to bigotry, hatred, violence and virulence; his shameless use of the cloth to insult the President of the United States."

It charged that the radio priest,

Nazis Told To Drive Slowly To Save Tires

BERLIN (Spl.)—A warning to German automobile drivers to slow down and lighten their loads in order not to wear out their tires were issued here by all newspapers.

The Reich Transportation Ministry has made no secret of its reasons for issuing such a warning. It stated that it is becoming increasingly difficult to provide the necessary foreign exchange to purchase natural rubber abroad and accordingly the supply of tires on hand has decreased. The heavy demands on the tire industry made by the new motorized army are not mentioned.

Berlin automobile dealers and owners have been complaining for some time that it is extremely difficult to purchase new tires.

Yiddish, Hebrew On 50 Typewriters

HARTFORD, Conn. (Spl.)—Fifty typewriters with Russian, Hebrew and Yiddish characters are being manufactured here by the Royal and Underwood Typewriter Companies for Icor, the organization for Jewish colonization of Biro-Bidjan. They will be sent to the autonomous Jewish state.

A number of specially-made parts were constructed for the machines.

though a citizen, had never taken an oath of allegiance to this country, but had taken such an oath to the Crown of Great Britain.

The statement was issued by William R. Wallace, secretary of the league.

Jewish Chaplain Hears Silver Shirt Accusations

SEATTLE, Wash. (Spl.)—Attending two public meetings here of the Silver Shirts, Lou Kessler, former state chaplain of the American Legion and chief de gare of the 40 & 8, was astounded to learn that he was part of an "international Jewish conspiracy."

Writing in The Jewish Transcript, Mr. Kessler said:

"I am a veteran of the World War. I took part in five major engagements in the bloody conflict of 17 years ago, fighting for my country.

"But, until this week, I did not know that I, a former state chaplain of the American Legion and chief de gare of the 40 & 8, Legion auxiliary, am a part of an 'international Jewish conspiracy' to wreck the world.

"I did not know that President Roosevelt is really a Jew named Rosenfeld!

"I didn't know that all Jews are Communists and all Communists are Jews!

"I learned all this at two public meetings. The first was held at the Whittier Heights Improvement Club, 1413 W. 70th Street, last Wednesday night—the night, ironically enough, Grand President Jefferson Peyser was telling 350 B'nai B'rith members about anti-Semitism in America!

"And the second was held at the Everstate Club, N. 122nd and Fremont Avenue, Thursday night—the Silver Shirt propaganda, you see, is trying to get a 'respectable' audience in Seattle's community clubs.

"I've gone through shell-fire and the hell of war, but you could have bowled me over with a feather when I heard Roy Zachary, state organizer of the self styled Christian Party, a squint-eyed, bespectacled, pudgy, smooth talker, at the Whittier Heights gathering declare:

"In 1792, the Jews, through a secret international group, first took over the United States, through the medium of the Rothschild international bankers."

"That, mind you, I didn't hear in Nazi Germany. I heard it in Seattle!

"Then Zachary continued, 'A group of Jewish bankers were made a present of an organization known as the Federal Reserve Banking System. They pay $62.50 for $1,000,000 in Federal Reserve Bank notes. They loan this $1,000,000 out, retaining the interest for themselves until they make a million on the million, then give the reserve notes back to the government and then they start all over again.

"But remember, each time they've got to pay $62.50 for this privilege of making $1,000,000. No Gentiles are allowed any part of this. This is part of the secret international plot that the Jews have already got in America.

"The trouble in Spain and the rest of Europe is merely part of this great scheme of the Jews to take over the world. No matter which side wins, Spain will belong to the Jews, body and soul.

"The time has come when the Christians of America, regardless of their own differences of opinion, must bind themselves together

Bible Reading In Classrooms Turned Down

MINNEAPOLIS (Spl.)—Pointing out that a classroom procedure which might lead to the listing of children on the basis of religious belief would be undesirable," the Minneapolis Board of Education refused the request of the Minneapolis Council of Federated Church Women for daily reading of the Bible in all public schools of the city.

Pupils who do not desire to listen to certain Biblical passages would have to be excused, the board pointed out, and this procedure would separate the pupils on a religious ground. The Board of Education states that it was in sympathy with the aims of the Church Council.

Yiddish Play Broadway Hit

NEW YORK (Spl.)—The Yiddish Theatre returned to Broadway Friday night with the opening of "Jacques Bergson" at the Forty-Ninth Street Theatre to the accompaniment of praise from newspaper critics.

Although considered inferior to "Yoshe Kalb," the last glimpse Broadway has had of the Yiddish stage, the new play was favorably reviewed. Referring to the opening, The New York Times said, "One may say bluntly at once that it is an event. Not that they have another 'Yoshe Kalb' to stir the Broadway pulse. Their first offering at the Forty-Ninth Street Theatre is made of soberer stuff." The Times also said that "the Yiddish Art Theatre is back uptown, and Broadway will sit up and take notice."

Maurice Schwartz, who directs the play, takes the part of Bergson, and turns in one of the best performances of his career. He is a hard working cafe owner who turns reactionary because his sons lean towards Socialism. When one of the boys turns down the daughter of a French banker for a German-Jewish girl, he is further estranged. However, father and sons are drawn together again when a Fascist denounces M. Bergson. He understands then that the Popular Front is his only refuge and why his son wants to go to Palestine.

3 FAITHS AT SERVICES
HARRISBURG, Pa. (NCJC)—An interdenominational religious meeting is being planned by members of the Ohev Shalom Temple here for November 6. Each Jew will invite a non-Jewish person to his residence for dinner and later take his guest to the Temple to hear speakers who will include the Rev. Everett R. Clinchy, director of the National Conference of Jews and Christians.

Rabbi Philip David Bookstaber said he also plans to secure a Catholic to address the group.

to save the United States from the Jews.

"You can't buy a Christmas card anywhere in the United States, with the name of the Deity, Jesus Christ, on it. The Jews have seen to it that no Christian can purchase or send that type of card during the Christmas holidays."

The Editor's Chair

The other day one of the newspaper reporters was telling this chair quite casually, as if it were an occurrence of not too much importance, of a group of people who congregate almost nightly at 2 a. m. to listen to broadcasts from Germany over the shortwave. The reporter's source of information was not direct and removed by one person, and even fails to tally directly with the facts, but even so indicates one source of calculated Nazi propaganda against which even the brains of an Untermeyer are unable to cope.

Originally Station DJC and now the larger DJD, both of which are located in Germany, broadcasted daily to the United States with programs in English, and designed to interest an American audience, on Lincoln's Birthday, on George Washington's Birthday, on the occasion of Texas' celebration of its Centennial, Station DJD dedicated its broadcasts to these specifically American celebrations. Every other nation including France, England and Italy, not to mention about fifteen others support government-owned short wave stations but none had the reason nor the perspicuity to direct their programs towards American good-will.

In order to reach America at a reasonable hour, DJD broadcasts in the early hours of the morning. Whenever Hitler broadcasts, during the afternoon or evening in Germany, American shortwave listeners must get up in the wee hours to hear him.

And as my reporter friend said, many of them do.

Services were not held on Sunday last year due to the illness of Dr. Goldenson.

Defeat For Anti-Semites In Roosevelt's Smashing Victory

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S sweeping victory Tuesday has many implications for Jews of the United States.

(1) Anti-Semitism is still a negligible factor in national affairs. Despite the rantings of the Edmondsons, the Pelleys, and others of their ilk, their opposition to the President on the grounds of his unprejudiced attitude towards Jews, influenced the voting in no one state or locality.

(2) Fascism and paid Nazi propagandists must read the impregnable character of the American people in the election results. Despite Coughlin and his alleged vast following, no appreciable mark was made on election results. The order from Berlin for Nazis here to vote for Landon had the effect of a baby's fist on a stone wall.

(3) Jews in public office are not considered by the vast majority of Americans as Jews but as Americans. The campaign using Morgenthau and Frankfurter as reasons why Roosevelt should be defeated, garnered about as many votes as Landon won states.

(4) If Jews believe their mission is the spread of social justice, then their fight has the approval of the majority in the United States. No four years have seen so many advances along lines leading to the betterment of the public weal than that of President Roosevelt. The desire for a more equitable existence for the underdog and the downtrodden, the message of the prophets, may be read in the overwhelming vote of confidence expressed by Tuesday's vote.

If material progress keeps apace of the past twelve months, then the immediate crisis from a Jewish standpoint in the United States has passed. Anti-Semitism must necessarily take a fall. The most powerful ammunition of those who would harm the Jews of this country has been expended, and the great American people have stood staunchly by the principles on which this nation was founded.

For this defeat of the Anti-Semites, the Anti-Defamation League must be given considerable credit. Exhausted by the barrage of election propaganda, leaders in the League must feel relieved by Roosevelt's smashing victory.

Relaxation of vigilance is not called for, but certainly, even the most cautious will admit that for the time being the danger is over.

Praise Providence For Our Publicity Men!!!

IN the past few weeks the normally abnormal New York noon-day rush has been more rushing than usual. Whereas heretofore only New York's 7,000,000 citizens could be counted bruising through the world's busiest thoroughfare, now a new addition to the racing masses has been reported by observant persons.

They are the press agents for national Jewish organizations (anywhere from two members to 100,000 members). And they are rushing to newspaper offices, rushing into print. As the essayist would say, to all intents and purposes, evidently, and as a consequence they must have something of importance to announce to the non-Jewish world.

And the startling news reaches a world whose breath is bated.

PALESTINE FOUNDATION FUND SPENT $28,405,000 SINCE 1920 IN PALESTINE.

Hallelujah!!!

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS SPENT BY JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE IN GERMANY AND POLAND.

Amen, Brother, Amen!

NATIONAL HOSPITAL FOR THE RELIEF OF JEWISH RATS (no reference to publicity directors) CAUGHT IN TRAPS SPENDS HALF BILLION.

THE LORD BE PRAISED!

Everything has been published but the publicity director's salary. And if the salary is commensurate with their brains, their families would be on relief.

If newspapers sent reporters to directors' meetings, and these reporters after months of effort ferreted out what Jewish organizations, since the destruction of the Temple, have spent on relief, then there might be some justification for the news articles. But no. The publicity director goes into conference with the auditors, the secretary goes into communion with the holy mimeograph machine and, the daily newspapers of the nation begin to tell everyone how much money a strictly Jewish organization has collected from a minority we keep trying to tell everyone does not have all the money in the United States can afford to send into foreign lands.

God forbid that this charity should be curtailed.

But why go back to 1920 or 1916 and total up the contributions to a fabulous sum so that the Pelleys and the Edmondsons can have more information with which to barrage the indifferent fringe into bitter anti-Semitism. And why smear these stories into the general press whose readers neither contribute nor are actually interested, except as a weapon against Jewish security.

Who are these organizations trying to impress?

May Providence save us from our publicity friends.

Donations To United Drives Should Be Published

THE decision of Cincinnati to publish the amounts and names of contributors to its united Jewish campaign, and the announcement by Boston that for the first time in years this information will not be made public, focuses attention on a question which has troubled Jewish communities for many years.

In behalf of non-publication of donors and amounts, it was pointed out that many persons who heretofore were able and did contribute generously would be embarrassed because financial difficulties prevented them from making as large gifts as in the past. Comparison was inevitable, it was said, and the reputation of many philanthropic individuals would suffer.

On the other hand, it was contended that publication acts as an incentive and a compellant to many persons who might without fear of adverse publicity give much less than their income warranted.

In some cities a half way compromise has been effected where only contributors above a certain amount have been named in the public press.

The tendency in the past few years favors the decision of Cincinnati. Publication of names has become so general in Community Chest drives that whatever objection has been raised has been overcome by habit more than anything else. The public has become educated to the practice of printing this information, and Jewish organizations should have no compunctions about those whose curtailed incomes make it necessary for them to drop from the class of large givers.

Sunday Services With, Saturday Services Without

SUNDAY services were resumed this week in Temple Emanu-El in New York.

Whereas in years past Sunday services were not unusual in many of the larger cities of the nation, one by one they have been dropped.

Sunday services were the imperfect answer of the Temple to the necessity of the business man for Saturday work. This was one answer. The other answer was to observe the Sabbath as it should be on Saturday and worship without the business man.

Neither answer is a solution. Sunday services with the business men in attendance were admitted by many Rabbis to be cold and devoid of any real religious significance. Then, too, many of those who were free of work on Sunday and in a position to attend preferred golf, or other recreation or rest to attendance at synagogue services.

Sunday with or Saturday without. Neither is the answer.

Emigration Problems Become Acute HIAS Nine Month Record Shows

To the Editor:

The problem of Jewish emigration and the urgency of ministering to the needs of Jewish immigrants are assuming a scope greater than in many years.

This fact stands out as a result of a tabulation of figures concerning immigrant aid service rendered by HIAS, the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, whose headquarters are at 425 Lafayette Street. The figures, contained in a report by Isaac L. Asofsky, general manager, and submitted to the HIAS Board of Directors, were made public by Mr. Abraham Herman, president, covers the nine-month period between January 1, to September 30, 1936.

The salient points brought out in the report show that during this period, of the total number of Jewish aliens who arrived in the United States on 465 steamers, 4,683 were remanded into the care of HIAS representatives who met them on arrival; 3,749 were refugees from Germany.

At its Ellis Island Bureau, HIAS served 19,079 kosher meals to Jewish immigrants, temporarily detained or excluded, and gave legal advice and information to 5,654 persons interested in the welfare of newly arrived immigrants. The Washington Bureau of HIAS represented the cases of 236 excluded immigrants before the Board of Review of the Department of Labor; gave attention to 247 petitions for quota exempt and quota preferred visas and handled 3,668 mail inquiries and miscellaneous matters.

The report of the citizenship bureau shows that during the nine months, 4,754 persons were aided in the preparation of their applications for first and second citizenship papers. For 1,815 persons records of their arrival were obtained from the HIAS archives, thus enabling them to establish their legal entry into the country and apply for citizenship.

4,852 requests to locate relatives were received from all parts of the world. This service has proved very effective in reuniting members of families who have lost all knowledge of each other's whereabouts. Furthermore, people here are thus enabled to assist their kith and kin on the other side who may be in need. Thus, the Society's remittance bureau transmitted $721,942.84 for 29,334 remittances.

The Department of Shelter, which takes care not only of immigrants temporarily sheltered in the Society's home, but also Jewish unemployed and homeless, provided 204,936 meals and 20,582 nights' shelter and also provided wearing apparel and other necessities required by the needy. The Employment Bureau conducted in connection with this department endeavors to find work and also renders social service to those who are sheltered.

HIAS in conjunction with the ICA in Paris, maintains offices in European and South American countries and renders similar service to the Jewish migrants there as it does in the United States. HEBREW SHELTERING AND IMMIGRANT AID SOCIETY OF AMERICA, New York

PEOPLE and PLACES

By DOUG D. BROWN

It's Sunday afternoon before election as I write this and by the time you read it our election will be a thing of the past and we will once again be able to tune in on our radios and hear a good jazz band for a change.... It's been a busy Sunday for me. In the a. m. it was Sunday School at the Temple with its ever-growing activities.

... Mr. Louis Borinstein, president of the Temple Congregation, spoke to the children. ... The increased attendance of adults at the Temple on Sunday a. m. is very noticeable and impressive. ... There was Mr. Louis Serensky, Mrs. Victor Goldberg, Mr. Joseph Baernkopf, Mrs. L. Borinstein, and others.... Back to my busy Sunday again.... After Sunday School it was a hurried-up meeting of teachers to decide about attending the TriState Teachers' Convention at Cleveland, O., the last week-end in November. ... Simon Mendelsberg, Shulamith Raab, Mrs. Mildred Levy and "Yours Truly" may go. ... After this meeting, hustling home, dressing, cleaning, eating, and hustling over to Thomson Hall to be sworn in as an election commissioner and while there talking to Senator Jake Weiss about politics and things.... He informed me that I missed a lot of fun at the Bethel Party on Hallowe'en night at Bethel on 34th and Ruckle and he's probably right again, for I know that when the Bethel celebrates they put a lot of pep into their activities. ... Also seeing Berny Cohen, Jack Kaufman and Jack Kammins politicking around the hall.... Then a hop, skip and jump around to the Cadle Tabernacle where a wave of my press pass ushers me into the more than 6,000 people (my estimate) congregated to hear the genius of Fritz Kreisler, the great violinist.

... He was marvelous; he played masterly; he held the attention, undividedly of the entire assembly. ... Mrs. Isaac Born, president of the White Cross Guild, introduced him and did a very good job of it. ... I did spot a few in the great mass of people. ... For instance, Dora Wolf, Mr. S. Messing, Mrs. I. S. Kahn, Mrs. Louis Wolf and her guest, Miss Black, Mrs. Leon Kempler, Mrs. B. Brown, and Mrs. Ruth Nebron, Mrs. Esther Fairbanks, and Mrs. S. C. Bodner.... I am informed that over 400 people came down from Chicago to hear the recital as he is not expected to play in the Windy City.... And, oh yes, in answer to someone's inquiry about the new murals on the wall, they are the work of the celebrated Spanish artist, Jose Mass.... Yes, there is some advantage in writing for it does provide one with press passes for football, shows, musicals, and such. ... Thursday night I wielded one at Keith's and they passed me right through to see "It Can't Happen Here." ... Those of you who saw it know that the acting was very good but that the theme is very depressing, for it portrays just the opposite of its title.... In between curtains and an opportunity to "how-de-do" to Mrs. Mildred Levey, Mrs. Julia Kwinney, Mr. Livingston and his daughter, Lucille, and her hubby, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldstein, Joe Bernstein and, way down in front, Verna Mae Garfunkel. ... Laskey, and loads of fun for all; ask any of them about the results of the chewing gum game. ... The So-No Club had a party at Isabelle and Henry Schildmiers house (brother and sister) but so many outsiders crashed the party it was necessary to call the cops. ... A business this Hallowe'en. ... Herman Steinkeller, Bob Borinstein, and Henny Schildmiers composed the negative team of debaters who won a close decision on the subject, "It Can't Happen Here." ... The other side, all girls, Phyllis Cooler, Betty Lapinska, Carolyn Jeager, had to treat the boys to drinks.... Hear that Arvin Rothschild is the new Indiana sports columnist for Pat Flannigan, who conducts a daily 15-minute program over the air.... Arv is doing all right in his new role.... Sam Mueller Ready For Drive On Community Fund

Playing an important role in this year's Indianapolis Community Fund campaign is one of the city's outstanding civic and welfare leaders, Samuel Mueller.

"Sam," as he is called by his hundreds and hundreds of co-workers and friends, has a heart-and-soul interest in the Community Fund which he so often has described as a great and noble cause.

Mr. Mueller came into the limelight as a money raiser and organizer back in the Liberty Loan days when he was a leader in all of the Liberty Loan drives. When the Community Fund was founded in 1920, he stepped into the front ranks and there he has remained.

"Sam" began as a worker, stepped up into an important post in the individual gifts division, was asked to help boost along the newly organized group and was named chairman of the commercial division. Later he was drafted as a district chairman in the individual gifts division and then served as chairman of this group for seven years, each year enlisting and training an "army" of 900 to 1,000 men and women volunteer solicitors.

In this, the seventeenth annual "mobilization for human needs," Mr. Mueller is serving as co-chairman of the national corporations division. But that is not his only contribution to the campaign. He is a member of the campaign executive committee, promotion and publicity committee and chairman of the sales school (training of workers) committee. In addition, he is a member of the Community Fund board of directors, having been named several years ago. He also formerly served on the Fund budget committee.

Mr. Mueller, in line with his many other civic and welfare activities, is first vice president of the Jewish Federation and treasurer of the Jewish Welfare Fund. He is extension department manager of the Indianapolis Better Business Bureau.

Miss Goldie Katz was hostess for the Agudas Herzl Young Judaea Club Saturday evening, Oct. 31. A Balfour program was presented. The club is making arrangements for the annual carnival which will be held at Kirshbaum Center during the Chanukah season. This is the only money-making project of the group and has been very successful in the past.

During the last 25 years total mileage of rural mail routes has increased more than 34 per cent, while the number of carriers has decreased from 41,559 to 34,763.

Thrifty Shop Sets Birthday Party

Marking the first birthday of the founding of the Thrift Shop, the Indianapolis Section of the National Council of Jewish Women is planning a party at 2:00 p. m., Monday, November 23, at Kirshbaum Center. Because of the need of worn or unused merchandise the admission charge will be a bundle of still serviceable clothing or household goods, and a small donation to defray the cost of the party.

The Thrift Shop has allocated $700 to the Jewish Federation and contributes to the Red Cross Flood Sufferers, Radium Fund, Tuberculosis Association, Dr. Morgan Milk Fund, and Penny Ice Fund.

6 Resign As Call Made To Drop Judaism

NEW YORK (NCJC)—Six honorary vice presidents of the Free-Thinkers Association have demanded that their names be removed from the roster of the Association as the result of an appeal issued by Joseph Lewis, president of the Association, to representative Jewish leaders in the United States, calling upon them to renounce their "antiquated creed."

Rabbi Leo M. Franklin of Congregation Beth El in Detroit voiced an immediate protest to the nine vice presidents of the Free-Thinkers Society. Replies were received from Herbert Asbury, Harry Elmer Barnes, Clarence E. Darrow, Rupert Hughes, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Chauncey D. Leake and William J. Fielding.

With the single exception of Mr. Fielding, all informed Rabbi Franklin that they had no sympathy with the attitude expressed in the appeal and that the appeal was written without their knowledge and consent. They have advised Mr. Lewis that their names must no longer be used by him and must be taken off the letterhead of the Association.

Last year, when a similar letter was issued, Dr. John Dewey, whose name appeared among the list of officers of the organization, immediately caused his name to be withdrawn as one of the sponsors of a movement with which he could not be in sympathy.

The appeal issued by Mr. Lewis asserted that "Yom Kippur is the most degrading and humiliating day in all the superstitious annals of religion; so use this day for religious independence, and let it be an emancipation proclamation to the world!"

"Abandon your Temples and renounce your antiquated creed; and by so decisive an act give to the world its finest example of courage and intellectual honesty."

"Arise and become free men!" Mr. Fielding was the only vice president to reply to Rabbi Franklin's protest by expressing himself in sympathy with the attitude of Mr. Lewis.

Rabbi Franklin charged Mr. Fielding, in reply, with knowing very little about the observance of Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) by the Jewish people.

"Intelligent religionists," Rabbi Franklin declared, "recognize quite as clearly as you possibly can that in the realm of religious thought, as in every other phase of human speculation, nothing of yesterday is good enough today if today knows something better."

In commenting upon the issue, Rabbi Franklin pointed out that "it is worth while knowing that men of the eminence of those who have had their names withdrawn from the list of honorary vice presidents, though belonging to a group of liberal thinkers, are yet not aligned with those who, out of their ignorance or malice, speak in derogation of religion and religionists."

PURE SOAP HARMLESS.

Home-made soap is still to be found in many homes and as long as it is made from pure lye and pure fat it may be used as a facial soap without harm to the complexion. During the curing process store the soap in a box containing rose geranium or other sweet-smelling leaves. Odor of the leaves will impart itself to the soap.

In New Movie

BOBBY BREEN

Acclaimed in his first picture, "Let's Sing Again," Bobby Breen, the Jewish lad with the remarkable lyric tenor voice, has completed a new talkie, "Rainbow on the River," in which he sings several popular numbers and an operatic aria.

Jews, Yankees Are Likened

BOSTON (NCJC)—Because the Jews and the Yankees have more in common than most people imagine, and because their attributes are such as to make them almost identical types, and because the Jews claim historical precedence over the Yankees, Hebrews may therefore lay claim to being the original "Yankees" is the unusual thesis of an article appearing in the October, 1936, issue of "Yankee Magazine."

Written by Carl Alpert, associate editor of the "Jewish Advocate" of Boston, the article first points out that the popular misconception of the Yankee is of a shrewd, sharp, grasping person. This picture, Mr. Alpert declares, tallies with the popular notion of what constitutes a Jew.

The author then proceeds to show that the popular misconception of the two as shrewd materialists, their common code of morals, their common reverence and religiosity, their common esteem of intellectual attainments, their common hospitality and Puritanism—all these reveal an amazing and a remarkable similarity between the Yankee and the Jew.

This week the Rev. Allen Lorimer, pastor of the Franklin Street Congregational Church of Manchester, N. H., devoted his weekly sermon to a review of the article using Nathan Straus as an example of a good Jew. One reader of the magazine cancelled his subscription with the comment that he was a Yankee, and not a Jew.

Yankee Magazine is a monthly periodical published at Dublin, N. H., circulating entirely among people of Yankee stock and Yankee interests. Mr. Alpert's article is the leading feature of the issue.

One of Geneva's medals will shortly be pinned on David O. Selznick for his production of "Little Lord Fauntleroy." The picture won top honors from the League of Nations International Committee for Artistic and Literary Enlightenment Through Motion Pictures, and the medal is now en route to Hollywood, where it will be formally presented.

3 Faiths Join Congregation's 80th Birthday

TORONTO (NCJC)—The oldest Jewish congregation west of Montreal, Holy Blossom Synagogue, this week celebrated its 80th anniversary in a dignified service attended by prominent Jews, Protestants and Catholics. Lieut.-Gov. Bruce, Rt. Rev. Dr. Peter Bryce, recently elected moderator of the United Church, Rev. Dr. Stanley Russell and Rev. W. A. Cameron joined in the anniversary service, under the direction of Rabbi Maurice Eisenrath. A message assuring the desire of the Roman Catholic Church to cooperate was received from Archbishop McGuigan, head of the archdiocese.

"Today we stand on the edge of the abyss in which Greece and Rome are buried—and the Jews survive," said Rev. Dr. Stanley Russell in recounting the persecutions of Jewry through the centuries. "You have a great mission still, to hold aloft the vision of God and the vision of man, for God has revealed himself to the Jew as He has to no other," he declared.

"How our brethren across the sea would rejoice if they knew there was one place on earth where men have not lost faith in their brothers," said Rabbi Eisenrath, while every Christian speaker commented on the tolerance of a community that brought Jew and Christian together in worship under the same roof.

Schools, Church In Birmingham Plan To Unite

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (NCJC)—After some weeks of hesitation, the Birmingham Board of Education has granted its permission to a joint commission of Jews, Catholics and Protestants to survey the schools with a view to connecting all the children under the city system with the church which they indicate as their choice.

Birmingham is the first Southern city where this inter-faith co-operation has been attempted.

Children who fail to state a preference will be approached through their parents, in an effort on the part of all three groups to reach the largest possible number in their Sunday School and other youth agencies.

The committee doing the work is represented by D. R. Price, secretary of the Birmingham Sunday School Council, for the Protestants; Dr. Morris Newfield, rabbi of Temple Emanu El, for the Jews; and Father Francis Gili, youth leader, for the Catholics.

Follow-up work will be done through the suburban churches in an effort to fill vacant pews, renew broken church ties, and eliminate chronic absentee marks which clog church records.

Sam and Bella Spewack have rejoined the Hollywood writers' colony for work on Walter Wanger's technicolor behind-the-scenes story of the world of fashion, "Vogues of 1937." The authors of "Boy Meets Girl" recently completed the script of "A Woman's Touch" for Samuel Goldwyn, which will be Miriam Hopkins' starring vehicle.

of the Jewish National Fund disclosed.

The report for the fiscal year, covering the period between October 1st, 1935, to September 30th, 1936, shows that the American branch of the Keren Kayemeth Le Israel had an income amounting to $479,324.8, a sum representing an increase of 65 per cent as compared with the Fund's income during the preceding fiscal year.
